REPUBLICAN NOMINATION. FOR PRESIDENT, Abraham Lincoln, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

OF MAINE. For wise, just and patriotic reasons

---- Hannibal Hamlin,

reliance on the protection of Divine Providonce, they mutually pledged to each other their lives, their furtures, and their sacred honor; thus exhibiting a spectacle of unsurpassed grandeur, and one which carried turror to the hearts of tyrants, and encouragement to all "Bons of Liberty."

July Session that year, and passed the fol-resolution, and we would suggest that if ever not be six months, we imagine, before the BY THE YEAR. Newport should again celebrate the declaration of independence, that the same lorin, no tion of independence, that the same lorin, no near as possible, be observed.

'In General Assembly, July, 12, 1716.
It's roted and resolved. That the resolution of the General Congress declaring the United Colonies free and independent States, and the act of this Assembly approprig said resolution; be published by the Secretary to morrow in Newport, at 12 o'clock, in presence of both Höuses of the General Assembly: That theire cannon be discharged at Fort Liberty, upan reading the said proplamation: And that the Brigado be drawn up on the parade, in thirteen divisious, and immediately after the discharge of the cannon, make a discharge of muskethy, each division fring one relley in succession.

It is further toted and resolved; That the said resolution and act be published in Pravidence, on Thursday next, at 12 o'clock, in such manner as his Honor the Governor shall think fit; and that thirteen cannon be discharged on the occasion."

"FAIG resolution—in—the "several" rownmeetings to be holden on the last Tuesday in August."

These resolutions were duly carried into offect, as was stated yesterday to us by an aged lady, who distinctly recollected the reading firing by Artillery, and by muskerry. We made a most determined effort to discover the locality of "Fort Liberty," questioning bid people, constructors of maps, antiquarians, et id orune genus, but made a most disastrous failure.

The "declaration" was read from the "balof the Secretary of State, by Maj. John Handy, who, in 1826, just fifty years after, performed the same -arvion. For some years after " peace was dedared" when colebrating the "immor-tal Fourth," it was not customary to read the "Declaration of Independence," for the singu-lar reason, at least to us, that it was consid-ored a Declaration of war with Great Britain. The practice, however, soon became general, the public view of the " Declaration" changing so far, that it was looked upon as a broad, altion, only limited in their application by the daries of the human race.

After perilling every thing held dear, yield-ing up property, health, life, relatives, sufferi; g great and indescribable evil-, it is not to be wondered the all these circumstances, combined with their space of right, should have led the fathers of the Republic to look upon the "Dechnation," as next in sacredances to the Bible. Such feelings continued to be industed in the continued of the sacredance of the continued of the sacredance of ment, for many years. In fact, it was left for our own day to hear the "Peclaration," ble styled as "glittering generalities." "thotori cal figures," "metaphorical," as being "ab surd on its face." It was left for our generation to set practically at defiance these great principles of government. And we hope it is left, also, for 1800, to have such a departure from the dectrines and practices of the founders. I our government, emphatically, itreders. I our government, emphatically, itreders . I our government, emphatically, irresistibly, rebulted, by an itdignant people Elessed is He that Con-idereth the Poor!

We learn from one of the Commissioners of the Asylum, that some person who is well to to, so far as this world's goods are concerned that Considered the poor.

A very tiberary received in the properties of the Health will be thought for the fact that the lamates norseion for supplying the inwales of that Institution with properties has been made, continued in the lamates norseion are observed in the lamates norseion for supplying the inwales of that Institution with properties has been made, continued the lamates norseion are observed in the lamates norseion for supplying the inwales of that Institution with properties are not properties the lamates increased are to dine, out of the lamates norseion government of the lamates in the lam the Asylum, that some person who is well to do, so far as this world's goods are concerned, has "considered the poor." A very liberal provision for supplying the inmates of that Institution with propinious has been made, to that the inmates aforesaid are to dine, on "Independence Day," from a goverous supply of roast lamb with sauce, peas, now petuloes, plum pudding and various kinds of pics.

Less not known who this person of large heart may be, but of one thing we are sure, that the thoughts of that good deed will be pleasant for many years, to both the recipients and the giver, particularly the latter. And anoth-or thing we are certain of, too, that a person can have many worse attendants through life than the gratitude of this world's poor.

The Mailroad, Again!

The Mailroad, Again!

1 is to be hoped that our Ciry will not be driven from the ground decause of the defeat in the General Court at Buston; of the Old Colon's charter, faithful, prayerful consideration, declared the srid States free and in dependant. Appealing to the Suprems Judge of the world for the rectitude of their intensions, they did, in the name and by the gauthority of the good people of the Colonies, solemnly, publish and declare that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States. And for the support of that declaration, with a firm the support of that declaration, with a firm the support of that declaration, with a firm the firm of the communication was re-liance on the protection of Divine Prot-

NOTE .-- the above communication was re ceived from an amonymous correspondent sometime since. We do not exactly agree with him that the city itself should build the road. We think, however, as the State of Charter required, it would be wise for the Parish school is opened in the 8. S. Room. The General Assembly of this State held a city to make a liberal offer to any company of the same rights and privileges which would have been accepted by the Old Colony Railroad, provided they will at once commence operations and agree to have the read the foundation of the most honorable the General Curgress of the United States of America, of the 4th instatt, declaring the said States free and instance, the company on the said to approve the caid resolution; and do most solemally ongage that we will support the said General Congress; in the said resolution, with our lives and for the conduction; with the first of the conduction of t would have been accepted by the Old Colony

They subsequently passed the following and Providence road established, it would people of Fall River would themselves petition, and be willing to nid, in the extension of the read to that place; for as soon as the road to Newport was complete, there would be plenty of Vanderbils's ready to put on Steamers to run to and from New York in connection with this road only. Thus a new and superior route would be formed, laking in Providence as well as Boston, and leaving at Fort Fall River where its disgraceful petition to the Massachneelts Legistature deserves.

Trees that Give a Shade.

Newport and my first visit; its impression upon the eye of an observer who would gather all attractions, and bring to notice the lack of what its citizens will most readily supply-its want of real shade trees.

Your beautiful residences, on which so varied and rethingshipothre bave been displayed; spread with flowers and smart; you an graded streets and neat sidewalks, (with few exceptions on Toure Avenue,) your magnifi-cent hotels and sploudid beaches, all commend your city; but the tall, stately tree, the shadoof the forest trees, where are they? Shall I say one universal conformity lines your tences, which amounts to no more than swamp foliage; no trees planted that will over span much higher than your fonces, destroying both eigh to your mantions, or view to the stranger and PIANO FORTES TO RENT

With the neble forest trees of our land, and many so near at hand, to transplant, I wonder many so near at mand, to transplant, I wonder at the noglect of so great an acquisition to your comforts and grandon. Pray visit the City of Elms, and have your ambittion elevated above the dwarf shrubbery of your oity. Barrels of accurs of the Burr Oak are ablipped annually to Europe for the parks of their lords and no-blemen, and they are willing to plant them that their descendants of a future day may on joy their shade. With the elm, the thite oak, the hickory, the swaying willow in your own most sacred declaration of great principles, forests, will you not transplact them to your which were more extensive than any one uncity grounds, to adorn and honefit your city.
